

Leiden Conference

1st December 2015, Tuesday
11h00 – 17h00
Pieterskerk, Leiden

Collective Damages Actions in the Netherlands: Practices, Problems and Promises

The Leiden Institute of Anglo-American Law and IIEF are hosting a conference for domestic and international experts to discuss their experiences with cross-border class action litigation, the new Dutch class action proposal, and its implications for multi-jurisdictional class actions. The legislative proposal, which may have significant international implications, will be open for public discussion this fall and is expected to be introduced in Parliament in early 2016.

The New Dutch Damages Class Action Proposal – Key Themes

Chair: Professor Daan Asser, Leiden Law School

Introduction: Femke Hendriks, PGGM Investments

Panelists:

- Wynand J. Brants, Ministry of Security & Justice
- Jurjen Lemstra, Lemstra Van der Korst
- Brechje van der Velden, Allen & Overy

Global Peace? European Collective Redress after Morrison, Converium, Kolassa, and the Scope Rule

Chair & Introduction: Professor Olav Haazen, Leiden Law School

Panelists:

- Professor Burkhard Hess, Max Planck Institute Luxembourg for International, European and Regulatory Procedural Law
- Niels Lemmers, VEB
- Anthony Maton, Hausfeld London

Class Action Practice—A View from the Trenches

Chair & Introduction: Geoff Jarvis, Grant & Eisenhofer P.A.

Panelists:

- Daan Lunsingh Scheurleer, Nauta Dutilh
- Jan Matej, Första AP-fonden (AP-1)
- Professor Alex Geert Castermans, Leiden Law School

*Additional panelists pending confirmation
The morning session will be in Dutch with live Dutch-to-English translation for our foreign invitees; the afternoon sessions will be in English.*

Pieterskerk Leiden

Pieterskerkhof 1A

2311 SL Leiden

Attendance is by invitation only.

Click here to register

The IIEF (Institutional Investor Educational Foundation) brings together experts, investors, executives and policy makers to share their specialized knowledge and experience. Our partners, presenters and attendees include leaders from the fields of law, investment, economic research, education, government and the media.

Learn more about the IIEF: www.iief.org